ONE HAND HELPING ANOTHER
(North Parish's Mission Statement)

From Fr. Tim's Desk

"I myself did not know him, but I came baptizing with water for this reason, that he might be revealed to Israel."

- John 1:31

In 1990, Kevin Costner directed and starred in the Academy Award winning film "Dances With Wolves", maybe you remember it. The film begins with Costner as despondent Union Army Lieutenant John Dunbar who seeks to end his life through suicide, but is instead launched into a journey of discovery to the frontier of the Dakota Territory where he encounters a tribe of Lakota Sioux Indians. Dunbar learns that everything he has been told about the Indians is incorrect. Likewise, the Indians too learn much about the white man who is in their midst. Lt. John Dunbar is transformed into a Sioux named "Dances with Wolves." He states "I had never really known who John Dunbar was, perhaps the name itself had no meaning, but as I heard my Sioux name being called over and over, I knew for the first time who I really was." Dunbar learns a new language, learns new stories, and learns to tell his story in a new way. The film is a story about identity, and new life, and transformation.

As we enter the season of Epiphany we find that it too offers stories about identity, and new life, and transformation. The name "Epiphany" comes from the Greek word Epiphania, and means "to show, to make known, or to reveal. It begins with the visit of the three Magi to Bethlehem who reveal Christ as "Lord and King" to all of humanity. It continues with Christ's baptism in the Jordan River revealing his divinity as the Son of God, with a voice from heaven saying, "This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased." And the season ends in the dazzling white light of the Transfiguration revealing the glorious divinity of Christ in the material world and the transforming power of His love.

Learning the language of salvation, learning new stories, and learning how to tell their own stories in a new way is very much the way that Jesus trained his first disciples and it is during the season of Epiphany that we too are urged to reflect upon our own stories and discover who we are called to be, how we have written new pages in our lives, how we have been transformed. It is during the season of Epiphany that we are called to tell our stories about how we have encountered the Christ, to tell what we have seen and heard. It is during the season of Epiphany that we are encouraged to listen to what others tell us about the Christ, so that He might be better revealed to us.

And after all of the stories have been told, might we understand better WHO we are and WHOSE we are.

“Sharing Thoughts from the Senior Warden”

As we enter a New Year after a season of giving, we need to be mindful of the continued needs of those less fortunate. In 2014, North Parish will continue to partner with local organizations by contributing non-perishable and winter clothing for distribution. When you are out shopping, please keep in mind those in need and bring your donations with you to church. Also, if you know of someone in need, please speak to a member of our vestry.

Each month we mail out a newsletter to you mentioning events at North Parish. Our active members are trying to keep our doors open by providing exciting and interesting social activities and fundraisers. As we begin 2014, I would like to invite ALL our parishioners, BOTH PAST AND PRESENT to be involved by volunteering, supporting and/or attending our events. Our future is in your hands! Come out and be a part of YOUR North Parish!

Happy New Year and God’s blessings be upon you.

Barry Idell
Senior Warden

NEWS FROM THE MARION C. PRICE TRUST FUND

December 5 was the 35th anniversary of the late Marion C. Price's death. Many of us did not know her but have felt the impact of her legacy through the years.

Marion was one of two daughters born to William Cowhen, the first registered pharmacist in Pottsville. His drug store was in the Cowhen building which is now Dr. Forester's office.

Marion married Frank Price of Minersville. Neither she nor her sister Anita had any children. Marion was the last surviving member of her family.

It is rumored that Marion had many cats and loved music. She was very devoted to her Church, Trinity, and donated funds over the years to repair the roof and doors.

When Marion died December 5, 1978 her wish was for her home to become a nursing home for elderly Episcopalians in Schuylkill County. For several reasons that was not feasible.

The Marion C. Price Trust Fund was established about August 1980. Six years later a Cy Pres was granted to authorize the use of the funds for elderly Episcopalians in maintaining themselves in their own homes as well as in nursing homes.

Since its inception the Marion Price Trust Fund has allocated approximately $280,000 as far as I can research. For hearing aids to personal care, eyeglasses to chair glides, prescriptions to roof repairs. All measures that improve the quality of life of elderly Episcopalians in Schuylkill County.

The current Board member from North Parish is Jane Shaqfeh. Other members are Doris Kauffman, Sue Wagner, Allen Brennan, Jim Dix & Karen Gildersleeve. Of course a big part of the inner gears and workings of the Marion Price Trust Fund are Edna Rauco and Father Jim.

The faces of Marion Price Trust Fund have changed over the years but never the mission of providing a community of support to elderly Schuylkill County Episcopalians and their families. To assist clients in their efforts to maintain their dignity as an adjunct to the spiritual ministry offered by each parish with Schuylkill County.

We have been doing our Senior Adventures since 2002 and have recently expanded to include games in the lounge after our lunch. We will be having a Christmas luncheon and in January we will be starting Winter Wednesdays to get people together to make the long days of winter just a little brighter.

I have been the Parish Nurse and Administrator of the Marion C. Price Trust Fund since August of 1996. When I answered an ad for a Parish Nurse and met with Father Morris and then the complete Marion Price Trust Fund Board firing questions at me from all angles.

When I first started to call the parishioners they were skeptical and weren't sure why I wanted to visit. I received many excuses at first. One that I remember was that they just had their furniture shampooed and couldn't possibly see me. I persisted, then one Sunday I heard a parishioner from Trinity say to the person sitting next to him that I was his parish nurse, I knew I had arrived.

I am required to give monthly reports; number of telephone calls, home visits, hospital visits, etc. But recently, inspired by something Father Jim Rinehart said in one of his sermons I started including a report entitled "more than just numbers".

I hope Marion Price would be happy to hear that her vision has evolved but maintains the dignity of elderly Episcopalians in Schuylkill County: Like taking a parishioner to his doctor and then the emergency room because his family lives in New Jersey, taking a slice of pizza once a month to have lunch with a woman who recently lost her husband, taking a parishioner to see her dying friend, getting medic alert information for people living alone so if they fall they won't have to lay there hours until help finally arrives, helping a parishioner with poor eyesight do her pacemaker check, sitting with a parishioner when her friend of 30 years is being buried or helping with a living will, a pace or rent rebate application and getting a call from a delighted parishioner that saved $80 on a prescription because the pace application we just submitted for him was accepted.

Through the years I have seen joy, sadness and fear but the quality I see repeatedly is inner strength and faith. It is these two qualities that have brought many of our parishioners through adversity.

Please know that the Marion Price Trust Fund is always available to serve the elderly and continue to follow the wishes of the late Marion Price. I would like to personally thank Marion Price and Father Jim for what they both have done for me and the blessings I have received through the years. It is an honor and privilege to serve the people I do.

Please remember I am available thru the holiday season for calls and visits.

Merry Christmas,
Kathy Burda
